C&S is pleased to share the exciting news of our rebranding to C&S Employment Solutions. As you know, C&S Business Services is a locally owned and operated staffing agency providing quality employment services in Jefferson City and central Missouri since 1977. The good news is that quality, exceptional service you are accustomed to receiving from C&S is not changing.

The purpose behind refreshing the brand to C&S Employment Solutions is to more clearly define the mission of C&S of connecting employees with employers. It has and continues to be the mission of C&S to serve the needs of our applicants, employees and business partners while remaining current, focused and evolving with the changes in the workforce. Keeping up with those changes and innovations in the staffing industry was also a driving force behind rebranding to C&S Employment Solutions.

C&S employees and business partners should not experience any change in the manner we conduct business and provide staffing services and support. Our staff and our commitment to quality staffing service remains the same.

So, what has changed with the rebranding to C&S Employment Solutions?

Our name. C&S Business Services has served us well over the course of time. It is our hope that rebranding to C&S Employment Solutions will not only better define what we do but also help with searchability which over the years proves to be more and more crucial when doing business and connecting with as well as serving the needs of job seekers and employers.

Our look. Keeping in line with rebranding to C&S Employment Solutions naturally comes a refresh of our logo. It was important to keep C&S as part of our identity since C&S has a proven reputation in central Missouri. The change to Employment Solutions explains exactly what we do.

Three versions of the new C&S logo appear above.

Our web address & email accounts. Being able to simplify our contact information and website address was definitely a plus with rebranding to C&S Employment Solutions. The new web address csemployment.com is identifiable, searchable and memorable as well as serves as the ending of C&S staff, Payroll Department and the contact@ email accounts. For example, this newsletter was sent to you from contact@csemployment.com.

Some cosmetic updates to the C&S Employment Solutions website have been made to remain consistent with the new brand elements. However, the functionality of the website will remain the same (including access to the employee portal).

For the convenience and ease of job seekers and visitors to the C&S website, a QR code was also developed and will be incorporated in marketing efforts.

Updates at our office. Outside the C&S Employment Solutions office, updates and improvements have occurred to the marquee in front of the building along with new signage on and around the building. You may also notice a few changes inside our office at 1731 Southridge Drive to coordinate with rebranding to C&S Employment Solutions.

Ribbon Cutting. C&S is planning a ribbon cutting with ambassadors from the Jefferson City Area of Commerce and guests on May 5 (3 p.m.) to announce and commemorate our rebranding to

C&S Employment Solutions. One of the best aspects of rebranding is the opportunity to reiterate, refresh and reinforce the mission of C&S Employment Solutions...connecting employees with employers since 1977.

We are proud to be the source of employment for so many over the years and look forward to continuing to serve the staffing needs of Central Missouri under our new brand of C&S Employment Solutions.
